A SHOOTING AFFAIR. - Yesterday morning A SHOOTING APPAIR.—Yesterday morning, about half past ten o'clock, a shooting affair courred on Teach stress below the avenue, at the restaurant kapt by Charles Hurdle. It appears a number of persons who had attended the prise-fight assembled in the bar-room, and a discussion took place as to the qualities of the two contestants. During the debate a man named John E. Charles alias Cunningham, said he could whip any one, Ao Hurdle said he did not want to have any disturbance in his house. Charles then took a picture from the wall and threw it on the floor, breaking it to pieces. He then drew a revolver and commenced pisces. He then drew a revolver and commenced firing. Hurdle size drew a pistol and several shots were fred by the two parties. At this time a man named Barney Dounelly entered the door and was struck by a ball in the right side of the neck. He was immediately conveyed to the office of Dr. Buckley, where the wound was dressed, but the physician could not succeed in extracting the ball. Donnelly told officer Miller it was Hurdle who fired be shot, but did not intend to strike him, and hi did not want him arrested. Hurdle accompanied officer M. to police beadquarters, and asked for a hearing. Detactives Bigley, Kelly, McDevitt and Clarvos, with several officers, were soon at the place and arrested Frank O'Toole, Frank Drew and Cuningham.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the case came up-before Superintendent Richards, at police headquar-

Resolved, "That this Union must be and re main one and indivisible forever," that the was for its preservation having been brought to a triumphant close, and the supremacy of the Consti-tution vindicated, the right of the States under the Constitution are to be maintained inviolate, and that loyal citisens within the States and districts lately overrun by rebellion are entitled to all the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution.

7. Resolved, That all the States of the Union are entitled by the Constitution of the United States to representation in the councils of the nation, and to representation in the councils of the nation, and that all loyal members duly elected and returned, having the requisite qualifications as prescribed by law, should be admitted to their seats in Congress without unnecessary delay by their respective Houses, each House being the judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members. 8. Resolved, That treason is a crime which should be municiped, and that we are opposed to comprebe punished, and that we are opposed to compro-mising with traitors by bartering "universal am nesty" for "universal suffrage."

9. Resolved, That the payment of the national debt is a sacred obligation, never to be repudiated; and that no debt or obligation incurred in any man-ner whatever in aid of treason or rebellion should over be assumed or paid.

over be assumed or paid.

10. Resolvest, That we cordially endorse the restoration policy of President Jonnson as wise, patriotic, constitutional, and in harmony with the loyal sentiment and purpose of the people in the suppression of the rebellion; with the platform upon which he was elected; with the declared policy of the last Position. It was the selling of the last policy of the last policy of the last policy of the last policy of the last policy.

of the late President Limcoun, the action of Con-gress, and the piedges given during the war. 11. Resolved, That the nation owes a lasting dabt of gratitude to the soldiers and sailors of the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, and that the families of the fallen heroes who died that the country might live, 'are the wards of the people, and should be cared for by the Government.
